

Tweetiment User Guide

When presented with the homepage, the user can click on one of the blue trending topics in Australia.

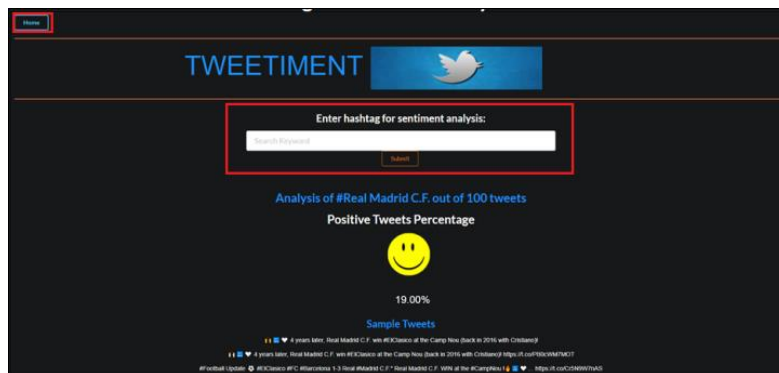

It will then provide them with the results page of the sentiment analysis of whatever topic that is chosen. Three recent tweets regarding the topic are also displayed

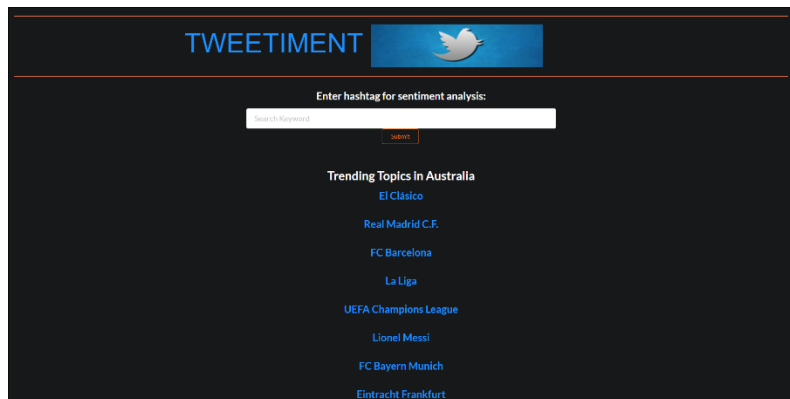

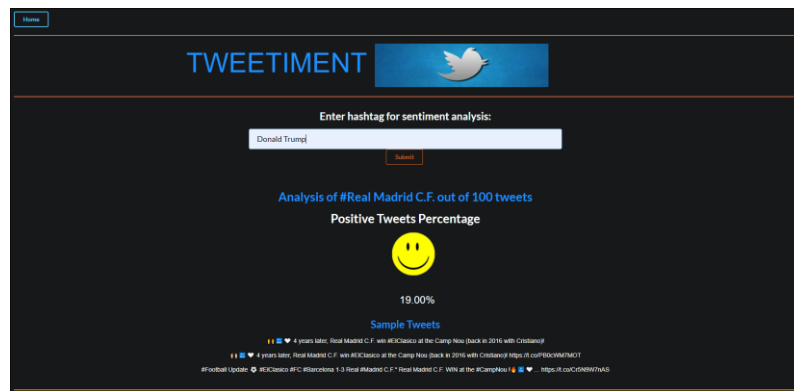

The user can then press the home button on the top left corner of the screen to take them back to the homepage or they can enter in their own hashtag search in the search keyword field. By going back to the homepage, the user will be able to see the trending topics again for ideas.

Back to homepage below.

Or enter in a new search.

New results of sentiment analysis.
